

Detailed Table of Contents

FOREWORD	vii
PREFACE	ix
SUMMARY TABLE OF CONTENTS	xiii
CHAPTER 1. HISTORY OF AMERICAN FACTORING LAW	1
I. Summary of the Historical Development of American Factoring Law	8
A. The Factor as a Commissioned Sales Agent	8
B. The Factor as Financier	9
C. Factor’s Right to Sue on Accounts in Its Own Name	9
D. Factor’s Assumption of Credit Risk in Consideration of a Supplemental Del Credere Commission on Credit Sales Only	9
E. The Scope of the Del Credere Factor’s Duties at English Common Law	10
F. Emerging American View of the Del Credere Factor as More Than A Mere Guarantor	13
G. Consequences of the Del Credere Factor’s “Absolute Liability” to Its Principal	13
1. Oral Factoring Agreements Are Legally Enforceable	14
2. Duty of the Del Credere Factor to Safely Transport Collected Sales Proceeds	14
3. Principal’s Right to Sue the Del Credere Factor if Not Paid at Maturity	14
4. Del Credere Commissions Were Earned Immediately Upon Entry Into the Factoring Contract, Before the Factor’s Performance Was Due	14
H. Characterization of Factor’s “Advances”	14

I.	Del Credere Factor's Right of Subrogation Upon Payment to Its Principal	15
J.	No Assumption of Quality Risk by the Del Credere Factor	15
K.	Emergence of the Modern Factor, Solely as Financier	15
II.	The History of American Factoring Law	18
A.	The Historic Position of "Ordinary" (Non-Del Credere) Factors in Early American Factoring Law	18
1.	Responsibility of the Ordinary Factor to Strictly Follow the Instructions of its Principal	18
2.	Losses Other Than Credit Losses	18
3.	Responsibility of Ordinary Factor to Its Principal for Credit Losses if Factor Sold on Unreasonable Credit Terms	19
4.	Responsibility of the Ordinary Factor to Give Seasonable Notice of Credit Losses to its Principal	21
5.	Principal's Obligation to Cover Any Shortfall Between Sales Proceeds Received and the Ordinary Factor's Advances Against the Goods	22
6.	Ordinary Factor Not Allowed to Commingle Sales Proceeds With Its Own Assets	24
7.	Ordinary Factor Not Permitted to Unilaterally Extend or Modify Credit Originally Given	24
B.	The Role and Duties of the Del Credere Factor in Early American Factoring Law	25
1.	Advances by Del Credere Factors Were Nonrecourse to the Principal	25
2.	The Factor's Acceptance of a Del Credere Commission Had to Be Express	25
3.	Del Credere Factors Had No Right to Assign Factored Accounts to a Third Party	26
4.	Early View of the Del Credere Factor as a Mere Guarantor of the Buyer's Credit	27
5.	The Del Credere Factor's Obligation to Pay Its Client on Maturity of the Factored Accounts	28
6.	The Del Credere Factor as an Obligor for the Sales Price of Goods (Net of the Del Credere Factor's Advances and Costs)	28
7.	Advances by the Del Credere Factor Above Contractually Required Advances Created Immediate Indebtedness Due to the Del Credere Factor From Its Principal	31
8.	Factoring Agreements With Del Credere Factors Were Outside the Statute of Frauds	32
9.	The Right to a Del Credere Commission Arose When the Factor's Credit Guarantee Was Given	33

10. Were Advances by the Del Credere Factor a Loan by the Factor to Its Client or a Partial Prepayment of the Purchase Price of the Underlying Goods?	33
11. Right of the Del Credere Factor to Sue in Its Own Name; Factor's Lien on the Consigned Goods and Their Proceeds	35
12. Limitations on Rights of the Del Credere Factor	36
13. Risk of Quality Defects Rested on the Principal, Not the Del Credere Factor; the Del Credere Factor's Obligation to Safely Transmit Collected Sales Proceeds	36
14. Subrogation Rights of the Del Credere Factor	44
III. Further Developments in English Factoring Law Around the Turn of the Twentieth Century	47
A. Del Crede Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk, Alone, Under English Law	47
IV. Evolution of Modern American Factoring Law	50
A. Birth of the Modern American Factor	50
1. New York City as the Historic Center of American Factoring	50
2. American Factors of the Early 1800s Were Largely European Immigrants	51
3. A Leading American-Born Factor Emerges	53
4. Growth in Factoring From the Civil War Through 1889	53
5. The Modern American Factor Emerges: 1889 to 1905	55
6. Enactment of the First American Factor's Lien Statute	58
7. Emergence of Competition From Asset-Based Receivables Financiers in the Early Twentieth Century	58
8. Expansion of the Modern Factor's Client Base in the 1920s and Beyond	60
9. Judicial Recognition of Differences Between the Modern American Nonrecourse Factor and the Del Credere Factor at Common Law	61
10. Initial Industry Consolidation in the Late 1920s and Early 1930s; Asset-Based Financiers Move In; Major Factors Raise Equity Capital via the Public Markets; Banks Also Start to Enter the Market	70
11. Growth in, and Enhancements to, Factoring Lien Laws From the 1930s Forward	74
12. Factoring Growth Continues in the 1940s and 1950s; Inception of Full Recourse Factoring; a Leading Factor Diversifies Into Accounts Receivable Financing	75

Exhibit 1-1. Comparison of the Roles of an Old-Line Factor and a Commercial Finance Company or Bank	78
Exhibit 1-2. Assets and Liabilities of Seven Leading Factors for the Years 1941 and 1948	79
Exhibit 1-3. Leading Companies Engaged Only in Old-Line Factoring in 1950	80
Exhibit 1-4. The Largest Commercial Finance Companies in 1950	80
13. Continued Evolution of the Factoring Industry From the 1960s Through the 1980s; Entry of the Money-Center Banks; a New Wave of Consolidations and Emergence of a Two-Tiered Industry Dominated, in Volume, by an Ever Smaller Number of Major Factors; and the Beginning of the International Market	81
14. The 1990s and Beyond—Entry of Some Industrial Giants, Continued Contraction in the Number of Major Factors, Growth in the Number of Smaller Factors, and Increasing Focus on the Global Economy	88
Exhibit 1-5. Domestic Factoring Volume of Selected Larger American Domestic Factors for the Six Months Ending June 1993	89
15. The Crash of 2008 and a Look Into the Future	96
B. Modern American Nonrecourse Factors as Owners of Purchased Accounts	103
V. Modern Factoring Today—Basic Concepts	114
A. Factoring Defined	114
B. Who Today’s Factors Are	115
C. Benefits From Factoring	116
D. Companies That May Not Be Well Positioned for Factoring: Points to Consider	118
E. Overview of a Modern Factoring Agreement	120
F. Factoring and the Uniform Commercial Code	122
G. Securitization Distinguished	126
CHAPTER 2. THE VARIOUS ROLES OF FACTORS	129
I. The Factor as Purchaser of Accounts at a Discount	129
II. Spot Factoring	131
III. Factors as Lenders	131
A. Factors as Providers of Accounts Receivable Financing, Lending Against Client-Owned Accounts	131
B. Factors as Makers of Advances in Excess of Formulas (i.e., Overadvances), Term Loans, Equipment Loans, Mortgage Loans, and Other Asset-Based Loans	131

C. Factor’s “Advances” as Independent Loans	132
IV. Purchase Order Financing	132
V. Import-Export Financiers	133
VI. Structured Settlements: Outside the Role of Traditional Factors	133
VII. Deeply Discounted Purchases of Troubled Accounts: Outside the Role of Traditional Factors	133
 CHAPTER 3. THE FACTORING CONTRACT	 136
I. Overview	140
II. The Factor’s Underwriting and Due Diligence, Pre-Contract	140
III. Title of the Factoring Agreement	144
IV. Term of the Factoring Contract	144
V. Funding Limits	144
VI. Oral Agreements to Factor Accounts	145
VII. Client’s Offer of Eligible Accounts for Factor’s Discretionary Purchase	145
A. Client’s Offer of Accounts	145
B. Eligible Accounts	146
C. Factor’s Discretion to Purchase Proffered Accounts	146
D. Case Law Regarding the Factor’s Exercise of Discretion	146
VIII. Formal Assignment to Factor of Accounts Accepted for Purchase	151
A. Batches/Schedules	151
IX. Amount of Purchase Price and Timing of Payment	152
A. Determination of the Purchase Price	152
B. Payment Date in Maturity Factoring	153
C. Payment Date in Collection Factoring	155
1. Agreement to Deem Any Undisputed Credit-Approved Account, Factored Without Recourse, to Have Been Collected Within an Agreed Period After Contractual Maturity	155
2. Absence of Any Evidence That an Account Is Disputed as a Condition to Factor’s Payment of an Uncollected Account: Definition of a “Dispute”	159
3. Payment Where Nonrecourse Factoring Agreement Does Not Expressly Limit Assumed Credit Risk to the Factor’s Initial Advance and There Is No Outside “Deemed Paid” Date	162
4. No “Deemed Collection” of a Purchased Account if the Factor’s Assumption of Credit Risk Is Expressly Limited to Its Initial Advance	163
5. Effect of Contractual Presumption That Accounts Not Collected Within an Agreed Post-Maturity Period Are “Deemed Disputed” by the Account Debtor	163

6.	Treatment, in a Partial Nonrecourse Factoring Agreement, of Purchased Accounts as Definitively Disputed, or Otherwise Giving the Factor an Absolute Right of Chargeback, if a Purchased Account Does Not Suffer an Event of Credit Risk Within a Defined Period	164
7.	No Deemed Collection of Purchased Accounts for Which the Factor Did Not Assume (or No Longer Has) the Credit Risk	165
8.	Accelerated Cash Flow to Client.....	166
D.	Payment Date in Advance Factoring (and in Discount Factoring)	166
E.	Payment Date in Non-Notification Factoring.....	166
X.	Advances	167
A.	Interest-Bearing Advances as Independent Loans	167
B.	Discounted or Non-Interest-Bearing Advances	169
C.	Discretionary Nature of the Factor's Advances	181
D.	Effect of Characterization of Advances on "Preference" Issues.....	181
XI.	The Form in Which and the Extent to Which the Factor Assumes Credit Risk	182
A.	Credit Risk in General	182
B.	Full Recourse Factoring—No Assumption of Credit Risk by the Factor	183
C.	Nonrecourse Factoring—Full Assumption of Credit Risk by the Factor	184
1.	Factor's Assumption of Full Credit Risk Requires Only the Use of the Words "Without Recourse" or "Nonrecourse"	184
D.	Varying Definitions of the "Credit Risk" Assumed by Modern Nonrecourse Factors	186
1.	Credit Risk Defined as the Account Debtor's "Financial Inability to Pay" a Purchased Account When Due, at Its Maturity	186
2.	The Meaning of the Term "Financial Inability to Pay"	187
3.	"Financial Inability to Pay" Contractually Defined as Balance Sheet Insolvency	188
4.	"Insolvency" Does Not Necessarily Equate to "Financial Inability to Pay"	189
5.	Assumed "Credit Risk" Defined as Either an Account Debtor's Financial Inability to Pay or an Account Debtor's Insolvency	190
6.	Assumed Credit Risk Tied to Discrete Events, Such as Account Debtor Bankruptcy	191
E.	Duration of the Nonrecourse Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk	191
1.	The Del Credere Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk at Common Law Was Unlimited in Duration.....	191

2. Generally Unlimited Duration of the Modern Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk	191
3. Partial Nonrecourse Factoring, Where the Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk Lapses After an Agreed Period of Time	191
Exhibit 3-1. All Accounts Not Yet Collected Treated as Converting to a Secured Borrowing Immediately	198
Exhibit 3-2. All Accounts Not Yet Collected Treated as Converted to a Secured Borrowing if Charged Back	199
Exhibit 3-3. All Accounts Not Yet Collected Treated as Converted to a Secured Borrowing if Charged Back and the Chargeback Is Satisfied	199
4. Factoring Agreements Which Convert Over Time From Full Recourse to Nonrecourse	203
5. Effect of Limitations on the Duration of Assumed Credit Risk on the "True Sale" Analysis	204
F. Partial Recourse Factoring—Credit Risk Shared Between Factor and Its Client	205
1. Split Risk Factoring	205
2. Assumed Credit Risk Shared by Client Up to a Specific Dollar Amount	206
3. Credit Risk Shared in Specific Percentages	206
4. Limitation on Factor's Assumption of Credit Risk	209
G. Limitations on, and Cancellations of, Credit Risk Assumed by the Nonrecourse Factor	209
1. Dispute by Account Debtor	209
2. Cancellation of Assumed Credit Risk by the Factor Prior to Delivery of Goods or Rendering of Services by the Factor's Client	210
3. No Limitation of Assumed Credit Risk From the Nonrecourse Factor's Ability to Set Off Its Balance Payment Due on Purchased Accounts Against Monies Due From Its Client, Such as Expense Reimbursements or Fees Due to the Factor	210
4. Assumption of Credit Risk Extends Only to "Approved" Accounts	211
H. The Nonrecourse Factor's Assumption of Full Credit Risk and the "True Sale" of Purchased Accounts	211
I. Factor's Credit Check Is Solely for Its Own Benefit	212
J. Factors Never Assume "Quality Recourse"	212
K. Factor's Retention of a Unilateral Right to Raise or Replenish Withheld Reserves	213
L. Factor's Limitation of Assumed Credit Risk by Taking Third-Party Guarantees	214

M.	No Assumption of Credit Risk by the Factor Where Accounts Are Purchased With Full Recourse to the Client	215
N.	Effect on Credit Risk of the Factor's Purchasing a Partial Interest in Accounts, With the Client Retaining a Junior Participation Interest Therein	215
O.	Credit Insurance for the Factor	215
XII.	The Reserve	215
A.	In General	215
B.	The Reserve as Security	216
C.	Debits and Credits to the Reserve; Minimum Reserve Levels	217
D.	Payover of Credit Balances in the Reserve	218
XIII.	Fees	219
A.	Commitment Fees	219
B.	Discount Fees/Commissions	220
C.	Interest and Default Interest	226
D.	Total Cost of Funding	227
E.	The Cost of Factoring Compared to Bank Financing	229
F.	Servicing Fees	230
G.	Early Termination Fees	230
XIV.	Representations and Warranties of the Client Regarding Accounts	231
A.	In General	231
B.	Evergreen Clauses	232
XV.	Client's Grant of Security Interests to the Factor	232
A.	Grant of Security Interest to the Factor in Purchased Accounts as Evidence of the Factor's Ownership Interest	232
B.	Grant of Security Interest to the Factor in Non-Purchased Accounts and Other Assets	233
C.	Protective Language Regarding Re-Characterization ...	234
XVI.	Billing and Collection Procedures	235
A.	In General	235
B.	Factor's Collection Duties	235
C.	Factor's Client as Servicer	236
D.	Notification Versus Non-Notification Factoring	237
E.	Lockboxes	237
F.	Collections on Non-Purchased Accounts (Non-Factored Funds)	237
XVII.	Other Factor Protections and Rights	238
A.	Miscellaneous Factor Protection Mechanisms and Other Rights	238
B.	Conditions to Factor's Fundings	240
XVIII.	Chargebacks	241
A.	In General	241
B.	Automatic and Non-Automatic Chargebacks of Ineligible and Disputed Accounts	243

C.	The Factor's Absolute Right to Exercise Its Contractual Right to Chargeback Accounts That Are the Subject of Disputes, Regardless of the Merits of the Dispute	246
D.	The Repurchase Price Payable Upon Chargeback	249
E.	Methods of Paying the Repurchase Price	249
F.	Chargebacks for "Quality" Recourse Do Not Affect the "True Sale" of Accounts	249
G.	Effect of Full Recourse Purchases on the Concept of a "True Sale" of Accounts	250
H.	Title to Purchased Accounts When Charged Back	252
I.	Upon a Chargeback, a Security Interest Is Retained in the Factor Until the Indebtedness Is Paid in Full	254
XIX.	Existing Liens and Security Interests Against the Client's Accounts	255
A.	Tax Liens	255
B.	Unreleased or Untermiated Financing Statements	255
C.	Release of Existing Security Interests	255
D.	Sales of Accounts "Free and Clear" From a Client's Bankruptcy Estate	256
E.	Contractual Subordination of Existing Security Interests	257
F.	Inter-Factor Agreements	258
G.	Contractual Bar on Junior Liens and Security Interests	258
H.	Recoupment and Setoff Rights of Account Debtors	258
XX.	Default	258
A.	Events of Default	258
B.	Default Remedies	259
C.	Factor's Analysis Prior to Declaring Default	259
XXI.	Termination of the Factoring Contract	260
A.	Per Contractual Terms	260
B.	Deemed Termination	260
C.	Retention of Rights Post-Termination	260
XXII.	Miscellaneous Contract Issues	260
A.	Choice of Law	260
B.	Jury Trial Waivers	261
C.	Forum Selection Clauses	261
D.	Arbitration Clauses	261
XXIII.	Special Requirements of Local Law	262
A.	Lender's License	262
B.	Usury	262
C.	Financial Privacy Laws	263
D.	Place of Contracting and Place of Acceptance	263
E.	Requirement of Written Modifications/Merger Clause	263
F.	Signatories	263
XXIV.	Multiple-Client Factoring Transactions	264

CHAPTER 4. TREATMENT OF CREDIT RISK AND “TRUE SALE” ISSUES	265
I. Overview	267
II. Factor’s Purchase of Accounts “Without Recourse” to the Client as “True Sales” Under State Law	269
A. Nonrecourse Factor’s Assumption of Credit Risk	269
B. Economics of the Credit Risk Assumed in Purchasing Accounts Without Recourse	270
1. Single-Invoice Factoring, Without Recourse	271
Exhibit 4.1. Nonrecourse Spot Factoring	272
Exhibit 4.2. Nonrecourse Loan With One Account as Collateral	273
2. Multiple Accounts Purchased in a Single “Batch” Without Recourse	274
Exhibit 4.3. Nonrecourse Factoring; One Batch of Accounts	275
Exhibit 4.4. Nonrecourse Loan With Multiple Accounts as Collateral	277
3. Invoices Purchased in a Batch With Partial Recourse	279
Exhibit 4.5. Factoring on a Partial Recourse Basis With 5% Partial Client Recourse for Credit Losses	281
4. Conclusion	284
C. The Factor’s Retention of Quality Recourse Does Not Bar a True Sale of Accounts	286
D. Official Comments to the Uniform Commercial Code ...	286
E. State Law Judicial Recognition of Accounts Factored Without Recourse as “True Sales”	287
F. Is a Factoring of Accounts on a Split Risk Basis a True Sale of All Accounts?	293
III. Accounts Factored on a Partial Nonrecourse Basis as True Sales	307
A. Partial Nonrecourse Factoring Defined	307
B. Partial Nonrecourse Factoring as a True Sale	308
IV. Factoring Accounts With Partial Recourse as True Sales	309
A. Effect on the True Sale Analysis of Client’s Acceptance of the First Credit Risk, Up to an Agreed Amount	310
B. Sales of Accounts With Partial Recourse as True Sales Where the Factor Assumes 50 Percent or More of Credit Risk	311
C. True Sales Where the Factor’s Credit Risk Is Limited to Its Initial Advance	313
D. True Sales Where the Client Shares Credit Risk via a Withheld Credit Reserve	315
V. Full Recourse Factoring—Sometimes a True Sale, Sometimes Not	318

A.	Full Recourse Factoring Treated as a Secured Borrowing	319
B.	Full Recourse Factoring Treated as a “True Sale” of Accounts	326
VI.	Facts and Circumstances in True Sale Analysis Under State Law	339
A.	Elements of the Facts and Circumstances Test	339
1.	The Parties’ Stated Intent to Make a True Sale	340
2.	The Extent to Which the Purchasing Factor Assumes Credit Risk	343
3.	The Factor’s Right to Resell and Pledge the Factored Accounts Without the Seller’s Consent	343
4.	Whether the Seller Has the Right (or the Obligation) to Redeem or Re-Purchase the “Sold” Accounts	344
5.	The Factor’s Right to Surplus	345
6.	The Factor’s Right to Control Collection of Accounts	346
7.	The Factor’s Control Over Settlement of Accounts	347
8.	Treatment of the Transaction by the Parties for Accounting Purposes	347
9.	Treatment of the Transaction by the Parties for Tax Purposes	347
10.	Notice of the Sale of Accounts to the Account Debtors	347
11.	Adequacy of the Purchase Price	348
12.	Sale of Associated Books and Records	349
13.	Size of Reserves; Unilateral Ability to Adjust Reserves	350
14.	Protective Language Regarding Characterization	350
15.	The Nature of Factor’s Legal Fees Payable by the Client	350
16.	The Nature of Seller and Third-Party Guarantees Held by the Factor	351
17.	The Client as Collection Agent for the Factor	353
B.	Effect of Non-Uniform State Law Provisions Where Intent Alone Controls	353
VII.	GAAP True Sales	355
A.	SFAS No. 77 (1973–1996)	355
B.	SFAS No. 125 (1997–March 31, 2001)	356
C.	SFAS No. 140 (April 1, 2001, to Date)	360
1.	Sales of Accounts With Full Recourse Treated as True Sales Under SFAS No. 140	363
2.	Sales of Accounts With Full Recourse Treated as Secured Borrowings Under SFAS No. 140	365
3.	Sales of Accounts to a Factor Without Recourse as True Sales Under SFAS No. 140	366

4. Bifurcated Accounting Under SFAS No. 140 for Accounts Sold to a Factor on a Split Risk Basis	368
D. SFAS No. 166 (Effective for Annual Reporting Periods Starting After November 15, 2009)	371
E. True Sales of Accounts by Governmental Entities	372
F. Summary	372
VIII. Factoring Agreements as True Sales for Federal Tax Purposes	373
A. Overview.....	373
B. Federal Tax Treatment of Accounts Factored Without Recourse	375
C. Federal Tax Treatment of Accounts Factored With Full Recourse	379
D. Federal Tax Treatment of Accounts Factored With Partial Recourse	383
 CHAPTER 5. SPECIALTY FACTORING AND NON-FACTORING FINANCIAL SERVICES	 393
I. Specialty Factoring.....	394
A. Government Accounts	394
1. The Federal Assignment of Claims Act	395
2. Assignment Under Federal Law Is of the Right to Payment Only	397
3. Worthless Collateral	398
4. Factors and the Assignment of Federal Claims	398
5. Governmental Waiver of Compliance With the Federal Act; Estoppel	398
6. Factoring Is Effective Between Parties to the Factoring Agreement Despite Non-Compliance With the Anti-Assignment Acts	399
7. True Sales of Governmental Accounts	400
8. Governmental Units as Account Debtors Under the U.C.C.	407
9. State Restrictions on the Assignment of State, County, and Municipal Government Contracts	408
B. Healthcare Accounts	408
1. Business Complexities	408
2. Anti-Assignment Rules of Medicare and Medicaid	414
3. True Sales of Healthcare Accounts	418
C. Transportation Factoring	423
D. Construction Factoring	424
E. Agricultural Factoring	425
F. International Factoring	426
1. Export Factoring	426
2. Import Factoring	427
3. Factor Chains	427
G. Spot Factoring	427

II. Non-Factoring Financial Services	427
A. Purchase Order Financing	428
1. Overview	428
2. The Basics of Purchase Order Financing	429
3. Inter-Creditor Agreements Between the Factor and the Non-Factor Purchase Order Financier	431
4. Costs of Purchase Order Financing	432
5. Requirements for Purchase Order Financing	432
B. Letters of Credit	432
C. Factoring Loans and Accounts Receivable Financing	437
 CHAPTER 6. LITIGATION BETWEEN THE FACTOR AND ITS CLIENT	 439
I. Possible Responses by Factor to Client Defaults	441
A. Acceleration of Underlying Obligations	441
B. Reducing or Ceasing Further Purchases of Accounts	441
C. Forbearance	442
D. Factor's Foreclosure	442
E. Factor's Exercise of Recoupment and Setoff Rights	447
F. Factor's Takeover of Client Servicing Functions	450
G. Taking an Ownership Interest in the Client; Requiring the Client to Raise Equity	450
H. Pursuit of Third-Party Guarantors	451
I. Pre-Judgment Remedies	451
II. Personal Jurisdiction	451
A. Establishing Jurisdiction Over the Client and/or Its Principals	451
1. Jurisdiction in General	451
2. Long-Arm Jurisdiction Over a Nonresident Defendant	452
3. "General" and "Specific" Jurisdiction	452
4. Alternative Forms: Alter-Ego, Agency, and Conspiracy Jurisdiction	453
5. Representative Case Law	454
B. Establishing Personal Jurisdiction Over the Factor	455
III. Contract Claims by Factors Against Their Clients	457
A. Breach of Contract	457
B. Account Stated and Other Non-Tort Claims	460
C. Attorney's Fee Claims	464
IV. Tort Claims by Factors Against Their Clients	464
A. Conversion and Unjust Enrichment	464
B. Fraud and Negligent Misrepresentation	465
C. Intentional Interference With Contractual Relationships ...	465
D. Piercing the Corporate Veil of the Client	465
V. Client's defenses, Claims, and Counterclaims Against the Factor	466
A. Improper Failure to Fund	467

1. Was a Binding Contract Was Formed?	467
2. Factor's Discretion to Refuse to Purchase Proffered Accounts	468
B. Claims That a Factor Improperly Charged Back	469
1. Claims That a Nonrecourse Factor Charged Back Accounts That Were Not Disputed by the Account Debtor	469
2. Claims That a Nonrecourse Factor Charged Back Accounts Within Its Assumption of Credit Risk	470
3. Claim That Accounts Factored With Full Recourse Were Improperly Charged Back	474
C. Goods Sold and Delivered	474
D. Unjust Enrichment	475
E. Claim for Return of Factor's Commitment/Diligence Fee	475
F. Oral Modifications, Before or After the Contract Is Signed; Parol Evidence Rule	476
G. Payment	476
H. Demand for Factor to Release Its UCC-1 Financing Statement	476
I. Statute of Limitations	477
J. Factor's Alleged Breach of Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing	477
K. Breach of Fiduciary Duty	478
L. Fraudulent Inducement/Negligent Misrepresentation ...	479
M. Usury	479
N. Truth in Lending	482
O. Improper Venue	483
VI. Corporate Client Must Appear by Counsel	486
VII. Injunctive Relief for the Factor	486
VIII. Forum-Selection Clauses	488
IX. Choice of Law Litigation	488
X. Jury Trial Waivers	489
 CHAPTER 7. LITIGATION BETWEEN FACTORS AND ACCOUNT DEBTORS	 491
I. Factor's Affirmative Claims Against the Account Debtor in Collection Litigation	492
A. Breach of Contract	492
B. Estoppel Created by Account Debtor's Verification of the Receivable	493
1. Verification in General; Common Law Estoppel Created Thereby	493
2. Statutory Waiver and Limitations of Payor's Defenses—U.C.C. Section 9-403(b)	495
3. Selected Cases	496
C. Tort and Other Affirmative Claims by the Factor	499

D.	U.C.C. Section 9-406.....	501
1.	General Rules of Section 9-406.....	501
2.	Case Law Under Section 9-406	503
3.	Special Rules of Section 9-408	508
II.	Defenses of the Account Debtor	509
A.	U.C.C. Section 9-404.....	509
1.	General Rule	509
2.	Recoupment Defenses Can Arise at Any Time; Other Defenses and Claims Are Cut Off if They Arise After the Account Debtor Receives Notice of the Assignment.....	514
3.	U.C.C. Section 9-404 Inapplicable if Account Debtor Has Already Made Payment to the Client Rather Than the Factor	514
4.	Other Limitations on U.C.C. Section 9-404	515
B.	Account Debtor’s Defenses to Verifications Given Under U.C.C. Section 9-403(b)	515
1.	Lack of Consideration.....	515
2.	Account Debtor’s Claim That Factor Lacked Good Faith.....	518
3.	Adequacy of Factor’s Notice.....	518
4.	Signatory’s Lack of Authority.....	521
5.	Waiver.....	523
6.	U.C.C. Section 3-305—Defenses and Claims in Recoupment	525
7.	Effect of Delayed Notice to the Account Debtor	526
8.	Special Rules Where a Government Obligor Is the Account Debtor.....	526
C.	Lack of Personal Jurisdiction Over the Account Debtor ...	526
1.	In General	526
2.	Long-Arm Jurisdiction Over a Nonresident Account Debtor	527
3.	“General” and “Specific” Jurisdiction	528
4.	Alternative Forms of Alter-Ego, Agency, and Conspiracy Jurisdiction	529
5.	Issues in Diversity Jurisdiction	530
6.	Selected Cases	531
D.	Failure to State a Claim	534
E.	Statute of Limitations	535
III.	Account Debtor’s Mistaken Payment.....	535
A.	Mistaken Payment to the Factor’s Client After Notice—U.C.C. Section 9-406	535
B.	Payments Received by the Factor After Termination of the Factoring Agreement	535
IV.	Forum Selection Clauses and the Account Debtor.....	535
V.	Arbitration Clauses and the Account Debtor	536
VI.	Bankruptcy of the Account Debtor.....	536
VII.	Negotiation of Checks Payable to “Stacked” Payees	537

CHAPTER 8. THE FACTOR AND GUARANTORS OF CLIENT OBLIGATIONS.....	541
I. Scope of Guarantor’s Guarantee	542
A. Full Guarantee	542
B. Limited Guarantee.....	543
C. Validity Guarantee	543
D. Guarantees of Payment vs. Guarantees of Collection	547
II. Factors’ Claims Against Guarantors	548
A. Breach of Contract	548
B. Account Stated	552
C. Attorney’s Fees	554
D. Tort Claims	554
III. Guarantors’ Defenses and Counterclaims Against Factors	555
A. Unreasonable Commercial Disposition of Collateral Under the UCC.....	555
B. Failure to Diligently Collect	556
C. Improper Charge-Backs	556
1. Accounts Improperly Charged Back as Disputed	557
2. Accounts Subject to Factor’s Assumed Credit Risk Improperly Charged Back.....	557
D. Inadequate Consideration	558
E. Oral Modifications Before or After the Guaranty Was Signed; Parol Evidence Rule	561
F. Factor’s Breach of the Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing	563
G. Fraudulent Inducement/Negligent Misrepresentation; Fraud; “Did Not Read” Defense	563
H. Breach of Fiduciary Duty	571
I. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress.....	571
J. Usury	572
K. Objections to Jurisdiction and Venue Chosen by the Factor.....	572
L. Payment of the Underlying Debt.....	574
M. Signature in a Representative Capacity Only; Execution in Blank	574
N. Guarantee Voided by Factor’s Charge-Back	576
IV. Waivers of Counterclaims and Defenses	577
V. Confessed Judgments.....	577
VI. Effect of Guarantees on the True Sale of Accounts	577
CHAPTER 9. THE FACTOR AND ITS FUNDING SOURCES.....	581
I. Rediscounting Lines of Credit: Asset-Based Lending to Factors	581
II. Re-factoring: Sale of Accounts to Another Factor	583
III. Participation Interests	584

IV. Funding via Securitization Transactions.....	588
V. Equity Offerings by Factors.....	589
VI. Litigation Between the Factor and Its Funding Sources.....	590
A. Litigation Between the Factor and Its Lender	590
B. Litigation Between the Factor and Its Re-factor	591
C. Litigation Related to Participation Interests	591
 CHAPTER 10. TAKE-OUTS AND OTHER RELATIONSHIP ISSUES BETWEEN FACTORS OF THE SAME CLIENT	 595
I. Take-Out of an Existing Factor	595
A. Direct Purchase of the Old Factor’s Position	596
B. Client’s Repurchase of the Subject Accounts and Termination of the Existing Factoring Agreement	598
C. New Factor “Comes in on Top of” the Old Factor’s Position	602
II. Legal and Business Issues to Be Addressed in the Take-Out Transaction.....	606
III. Litigation Arising From Take-Out of an Existing Factor	608
IV. Priority Disputes Between Factors.....	616
V. Split Factoring	617
Appendix 10.A: Letter of Indemnity	618
 CHAPTER 11. FACTORS AND THIRD-PARTY LENDERS/CREDITORS.....	 623
I. Factor’s Take-Out of an Existing Lender’s Position.....	625
A. Payoff Letters: Existing Lender Paid Off From the New Factor’s Funding Proceeds, or Existing Factor Paid Off by Client With Proceeds of Lender Financing	626
B. Assignment of Existing Lender’s Position to the New Factor	628
C. Existing Lienholder and Client’s Sale of Accounts to the Factor Free and Clear of Existing Liens	629
D. Sale of Accounts Out of the Client’s Bankruptcy Estate, Under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, “Free and Clear” of Existing Liens	630
II. Existing Lienholder’s Subordination to an Incoming Factor’s Security Interest: In General.....	630
A. Lien Subordination	630
B. Debt Subordination	631
C. Assignment of Factoring Credit Balances	631
D. Standstill.....	632
E. Treatment of Ledger Debt.....	632
F. Turnover of Funds	632
G. Client Acknowledgement.....	632
H. Prohibition of Subordination and Assignment	632
I. Bankruptcy	632

III. Priority, Intercreditor, and Subordination Disputes	633
A. Priority Disputes	633
1. General Rule: First to File or Perfect Is First in Right	633
2. Factor’s Perfected Security Interest Prevails Over Client’s Unsecured Creditors	635
3. Factor’s Perfected Security Interest Prevails Over Later Perfecting Purchaser or Lien Creditor; Special 45-Day Rule of Section 9-323 Applicable to Recourse Factors	635
4. Lien Creditor or Purchaser That Perfects Its Interest Prevails Over Later Perfecting Factor	636
5. Effect of a Third-Party Lender’s Subordination to a New Factor if Other Lenders Also Hold Liens on the Subject Accounts	638
6. A Junior Creditor Who Levies on Accounts Purchased by a Factor Holding a Senior Security Interest Takes “Subject to” the Factor’s Security Interest; the 45-Day Rule Applicable to Recourse Factors	639
7. Factor’s Cause of Action for Conversion Against the Holder of a Junior Security Interest: Holder in Due Course Defense	640
8. Factor Takes “Subject To” Unreleased or Unsubordinated Existing Liens	643
9. Naked Transfers of Security Interests Are Legally Ineffective	644
10. Factor’s Actual Knowledge of Unperfected Prior Lien	645
11. Client’s Trade Names	647
12. Priority of Bank’s Setoff Rights	648
13. Purchase Money Security Interests	649
B. Factor’s Failure to Perfect Its Security Interest.....	649
C. Disputes Between Factors and Lenders With Respect to Intercreditor and Subordination Agreements	650
IV. Lender’s Take-Out of Factor’s Position	652
V. Factor and Third-Party Purchase Order Financier	652
VI. Priority Disputes Between Two Lenders to a Factor	652
 CHAPTER 12. BANKRUPTCY ISSUES	 655
I. General Bankruptcy Concepts and Terminology	657
A. Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code	657
B. The Bankruptcy Court and Its Limited Jurisdiction	658
C. The Players	660
D. The Bankruptcy Estate and “Property of the Estate”	660
E. Automatic Stay	661
1. General Concepts	661
2. Relief From Stay to Recover a Secured Creditor’s Collateral	662

3.	Relief From Stay to Liquidate Pre-Petition Claims of the Creditor Against the Debtor in a Non-Bankruptcy Forum	663
4.	The Automatic Stay Does Not Apply to Any Affirmative Claims by the Debtor/Client Against Its Factor	663
5.	The Automatic Stay Does Not Bar Claims by the Factor Against the Client's Guarantors	664
F.	Claims and Collateral Valuation	664
1.	Proof of Claim and the "Bar Date"	664
2.	Collateral Valuation; Possible Bifurcation of Secured Claims	665
3.	Types of Claims; Priority of Distribution	667
4.	Filing a Proof of Claim: Pros and Cons for Factors	667
5.	Multiple Claims	668
G.	Cash Collateral	668
1.	Forms of Possible Adequate Protection for the Debtor's Use of Cash Collateral	668
2.	Valuation and Adequate Protection, Including for the Use of Cash Collateral	673
H.	Executory Contracts	677
I.	Post-Petition Operation of Debtor's Business	678
J.	Post-Petition DIP Financing	678
K.	Asset Sales Out of Bankruptcy	679
L.	The Chapter 11 Process	680
1.	First-Day Motions	680
2.	Stabilizing the Ship	681
3.	Plans and Disclosure Statements in Chapter 11	681
M.	Discharge of Corporate Debtors	684
N.	Discharge of an Individual Debtor	685
1.	Individual Debtor's General Discharge in Chapters 11 and 7	685
2.	Dischargeability of Particular Debts in Chapters 11 and 7	685
3.	Individual Debtor's Discharge in Chapter 13	686
O.	Bankruptcy Litigation	686
1.	Contested Matters	686
2.	Adversary Proceedings	686
3.	Debtor's Exercise of Avoiding Powers	686
P.	Conversion and Dismissal	687
Q.	Bankruptcy Rules	687
II.	Bankruptcy of the Factor's Client	687
A.	Debtor's Motion for Permission to Use Cash Collateral, and the Factor's Opposition Thereto	687
B.	Debtor/Client's Efforts to Directly Collect Factored Accounts	691
C.	Debtor/Client's Suit Against Its Factor for Turnover of Collected Proceeds Received by the Factor on Factored Accounts; Debtor's Demand for Turnover of Factor's Reserves and Credit Balances	691

D. Factor’s Post-Petition “Collect-Out” of Pre-Petition Factored Accounts	695
E. Factor’s Post-Petition Sale of Accounts Back to the Debtor	698
F. Factoring as a Form of DIP Financing	699
1. Historic DIP Financing by Factors	699
2. Factoring the DIP in Connection With a Securitization Facility	701
3. Recent Examples of Factors Providing DIP Financing	702
4. “True Sale” Finding; Sale of Accounts to the Factor “Free and Clear”	703
5. Post-Petition Factoring as Outside the Ordinary Course of Business; Need for Authorizing Order	704
6. Need to Seek Relief Under Both 11 U.S.C. §§363 and 364	704
7. The Issue of Existing Liens	705
8. Recoupment and Setoff Claims	705
9. Exit Financing	706
G. Factor’s Motions for Relief From the Automatic Stay	708
1. To Foreclose Collateral	708
2. For Permission to Set Off	709
3. To Collect on a Non-Dischargeable Claim	709
H. Factor’s Filing of a Proof of Claim; Client’s Objections Thereto	710
I. Preference Claims	711
J. Fraudulent Conveyance Claims	714
K. Is the Factoring Agreement an “Executory Contract” That Cannot Be Assumed?	715
III. Lender Liability and Other Claims	718
A. Factor’s Unperfected Security Interest Falls to Trustee’s Strong-Arm Powers	718
B. Factor Continues Post-Petition Advances, Unaware of the Client’s Bankruptcy	718
C. Claims Against Client’s Principals for Sale of Fraudulent Accounts	719
IV. Bankruptcy of the Client’s Guarantors and its Principals	719
V. Bankruptcy of a Client’s Account Debtor	722
VI. Bankruptcy of the Factor	723
 CHAPTER 13. THE FACTOR AND TAX AUTHORITIES	 729
I. The Federal Tax Lien	730
II. Effect of the Automatic Stay on the IRS’s Right to a lien on Post-Petition Accounts	732
III. The Factor’s Response to an IRS Tax Levy	733
IV. The Factor and §3505(b) Liability	736
V. Intercreditor and Subordination Agreements With the IRS	736

A. Subordination of Federal Tax Liens	737
B. Withdrawal of Notice of Federal Tax Lien	739
C. Release of Federal Tax Lien	742
D. Examples of IRS Subordinations to Factors	742
VI. Successor Liability	745
CHAPTER 14. FACTORING ACCOUNTING	747
I. Sources That Discuss Accounting for Factoring Transactions	748
A. FASB Statements of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS)	748
B. AICPA Statements of Position (SOP)	749
C. AICPA Accounting and Audit Guides	750
D. Books and Articles	760
1. Review of Example in the GAAP Implementation Guide	760
Exhibit 2-1. Sample Factoring Journal Entry	761
2. Review of Accounting Proposed by Mr. Ratcliffe	762
3. Review of Accounting Proposed in Intermediate Accounting	764
II. Examples of Actual GAAP Reporting	770
A. Examples of GAAP Reporting by Factors	770
1. Accounts Purchased Both With and Without Recourse as “True Sales”	770
2. Recognition of Income From Discount Fees (Factoring Commissions)	770
3. Client Advances	772
4. Balance Sheet Reporting	772
B. Client Accounting for Factoring Transactions Under GAAP	774
CHAPTER 15. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS	775
I. Factoring as a Tax-Planning Device	775
II. Factoring and Securities Laws Matters	776
III. Factoring and Criminal Law Matters	780
IV. Factors and Antitrust Litigation	780
V. Litigation Involving Factors and Third-Party Professionals	781
GLOSSARY OF MODERN AMERICAN FACTORING TERMS	783
BIBLIOGRAPHY	811
TABLE OF CASES	815
INDEX	831
ABOUT THE AUTHORS	855