

Jeremy B. Tatge is a customer service representative in the Boston office of Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. in the firm's Global Custody business group. Brown Brothers is the oldest and largest private partnership bank in the United States. Founded in 1818, the firm initially offered client factoring services as a by-product of its success as a dry goods merchant. As of December 31, 2008, BBH had over $6 billion in assets and 4,000 employees working in financial centers worldwide, providing commercial banking, global custody, foreign exchange, private equity, mergers and acquisitions, investment management, personal trust and estate administration, and securities brokerage services. Mr. Tatge holds a bachelor's degree in commerce from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia, as well as a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Virginia.
