

Summary Contents

Preface

Introduction

Detailed Contents

Glossary of Terms and Citations

I—The Source, Purpose, and Legal Effect of Patents

1. The Policies That Shape the Law of Patents
2. Congressional Implementation of Constitutional Authority

II—Patent Infringement

3. How Patent Claims Are Construed
4. Direct Infringement: Literal Infringement
5. Direct Infringement: Infringement by Equivalents
6. Indirect Infringement: Inducement and Contribution

III—Remedies for Patent Infringement

7. Injunctive Relief
8. Exclusion Orders: U.S. International Trade Commission
9. Damages, Interest, and Costs
10. Reasonable and Entire Compensation: Court of Federal Claims
11. Increased Damages and Attorney Fees

IV—Conditions for Patentability

12. Eligibility: What Subject Matter Is Appropriate for Patenting?
13. Adequacy of the Claims
14. Adequacy of the Specification
15. Novelty: The Concept of Anticipation by Prior Art
16. Events and Information That Qualify As Prior Art or As Bars to Patenting
17. Obviousness
18. Utility and Operability
19. Designs and Plants

V—Patenting an Invention

20. Ex Parte Patent Prosecution
21. Conflicting Claims to Priority: Interferences

VI—Amendment and Correction of Patents

22. Reissue, Reexamination, and Other Corrective Procedures

VII—Ownership of a Patent or a Patentable Invention

23. Acquisition of Patent Rights

VIII—Enforcement of a Patent: Procedural Aspects

24. Government Immunity
25. Jurisdictional Considerations at the Trial Court Level
26. Motions, Discovery and Pretrial Matters
27. Trial and Judgment
28. Preclusion by Judgment

IX—Enforcement of a Patent: Substantive Aspects

29. Defenses to a Patent Infringement Suit
30. Unenforceability As a Defense: Inequitable Conduct
31. Patent Antitrust and the Defense of Misuse
32. Torts Involving Patents; Preemption Issues

X—Appellate Review of Patent Decisions

33. Jurisdictional Considerations at the Appellate Level
34. Finality, Appealability, and Scope of Review

Statutory Appendix